Research History

The Kivalliq Campus was established in 1987. The Campus is housed in Kivalliq Hall Rankin Inlet. Kivalliq Hall was originally built in 1985 as a regional High School Residence and was converted in the early 1990's. The Management Studies Certificate and Diploma Programs and Office Administration Program are delivered on campus. Kivalliq Hall also houses the Observer Communicator training program for Nav Canada and the Government of Nunavut. The campus has a three bay trades training facility with a classroom.
