

Tuktut Nogait National Park (Uyarsivik Lake Base Camp)

Uyarsivik Lake Base Camp is a 16'X24' insulated fiberglass shelter.

	Name	Email	Phone Number
Primary Contact	Maya March	maya.march@pc.gc.ca	(867) 580-3233
Secondary Contact	Western Arctic Field Unit General Inquiries	Inuvik.info@pc.gc.ca	(867) 777-8800

Owner
Parks Canada

Membership
Regular Member

Website
www.pc.gc.ca/eng/pn-np/nt/tuktutnogait/index.aspx

Latitude
68.89139

Longitude
-122.8372

Location
Tuktut Nogait National Park, Uyarsivik Lake

Nearest Community
Paulatuk

Territory/ Province
Northwest Territories

Aboriginal Government/ Homeland
Inuvialuit Settlement Region

Facility Type
Seasonally-Operated Field Camp

Research Hinterland

Continuous Permafrost, Freshwater, Lake, Tundra

Main Research Disciplines

Anthropology, Archaeology, Climatology, Environmental Sciences, Geology and Sedimentology, Geomorphology, Glaciology, Soil Science, Terrestrial Biology/Ecology, Traditional/Aboriginal Knowledge

Power

Generator

Communications

None

Local Transportation

Accessible via charter floatplane aircraft from Norman Wells, NT.

Equipment Storage

Limited equipment storage, contact for more information.

Dormitory/Sleeping Facilities

No sleeping facilities, all researchers/visitors must bring sleeping tents.

Dining/Kitchen Facilities

No dining/kitchen facilities, researchers/visitors must bring external cooking shelter. No cooking can take place inside basecamp building.

Laboratory Facilities

None

Fuel Availability

Contact for information on fuel caching.

Research Requirements

Information on research and collection permitting in Tuktut Nogait National Park can be found at:

www.pc.gc.ca/eng/docs/pc/guide/rech-srch/index.aspx

Special Rules and Regulations

General Information on Tuktut Nogait National Park can be found at www.pc.gc.ca/eng/pn-nt/tuktutnogait/index.aspx. Researchers must follow terms and conditions of their permit. All researchers and visitors must make every effort to minimize use of aircraft in Tuktut Nogait National Park, especially by helicopter. All visitors, including researchers must participate in a mandatory orientation session to better understand rules and regulations.

Local External Resources

See Tuktut Nogait National Park Visitor Information for links to helpful resources:

www.pc.gc.ca/eng/pn-np/nt/tuktutnogait/visit/visit2/a.aspx

Nearest Medical Service

Paulatuk Health Center (Nurse Practitioner). (approx. 75 km by air)

Inuvik Regional Hospital, Inuvik, NT (approx. 425 km by air).

Safety Considerations

Bear safety and awareness covered in mandatory orientation, recommended carrying bear deterrents at all times and to hire a Wildlife Monitor from the community of Paulatuk, NT. Only Parks Canada trained staff and Inuvialuit Wildlife Monitors may be permitted to carry firearms for the protection of self and others in Tukturnogait National Park. Contact for more information.

Cost

Contact for more information.

Other Information

N/A

Last Updated

2015-05-30